Several of Mansfield's prominent citizens have requested that a daily be published the week of the agricultural and stock show and the G. A. R. reunion. Such a paper would, of course, be of great advantage. Daily announcements concerning the fair and reunion would appear in its columns; our visitors would see that Mansfield is wide awake and progressive, for a daily is found in no towns closer than Springfield and West Plains. Should such a paper be published, it would be distributed free. Hence the only source of revenue would be from the advertising. If the Mansfield merchants will see us and indicate what advertising they desire we shall be glad to figure on the proposition. Send us 10c and we will mail you a copy of the Daily Mirror every day—provided we issue one. If not we will return your dime. The daily—if issued—will be distributed free in Mansfield, but we will send it by mail to any address for 10c. Send us the dimes.

The Sunday school teachers' meeting last evening at the C. P. church was not largely attended on account of the rain. Next week they meet at the M. E. church

We are now prepared to make loans on Wright and Douglas county farms—long time at reasonable rate of interest.

STOCK SHOW NOTES

Get busy—remember Sept. 24, 27

Mansfield's Second Annual Agricultural & Stock Show—next week.

Aviator Wilson has shipped his largest balloon and expects to arrive Saturday.

Aviator Wilson, the balloon man, says he will try to break his record for height at the Mansfield show.

The horticultural hall will be in one half of the building occupied by the C. L. Beach Sons music store

The Hartville band will visit the Mansfield show, according to R. F. Adams, whose word is as good as gold.

Mountain Grove has promised some band music and a few other stunts at Mansfield next week. Look out.

The fancy work and school exhibit will be in one half of the building occupied by Mrs. James Coday's millinery store.

C. Z. Reading will arrive Saturday and expects to get busy taking in the nickles Monday night with a brand new $7,000 carousal.

I should worry! Get busy! Hook up and come to the show prepared to stay all week. Something doin' all the time, night and day.

The Arrighi airdome will be in operation Monday night with thousands of feet of reels all new, and a change of program every night.

A general cleaning of the park, etc., is under way. Cut the weeds and let us present a clean appearance to our visitors. Get busy.

A temporary structure is being built between the Bank of Mansfield and M. G. Hensley's store for the agricultural hall and poultry exhibit.

Forest, the wonder trick horse, defying all competitors, will exhibit at the Mansfield show all week. This animal's intelligence is phenomenal.

Don't fail to bring in that fine cow and have the milk tested and get a whack at the prizes offered by the Fox River Butter Co., the Springfield Creamery and the Mountain Grove Creamery Co.

The Ava band writes Prof. W. S. Slater, director of the Mansfield Concert Band, that they expect to visit the show Friday and toot a few new pieces, we will be glad to have the boys with us.

Jargo, the wonder captured near Mountain Grove, will be on exhibition. You should not fail to see this monstrosity at meal time. Ten pounds of raw meat to the meal is what it takes to satisfy his ravenous appetite.

The various committees will have to work from now on to have everything in readiness for the Mansfield Agricultural & Stock Show. A booster trip of 100 Mansfield people and the band went to Seymour Monday evening advertising the fair and similar trips are to be made to neighboring towns.

Passing through the poultry exhibit, at the rear you will enter D. W. Hoover's mule barn, which will be appropriately decorated and arranged for the stock show, which promises to be much larger than last year. Stock men from other counties will have exhibits, having already corresponded with the committee for space.
